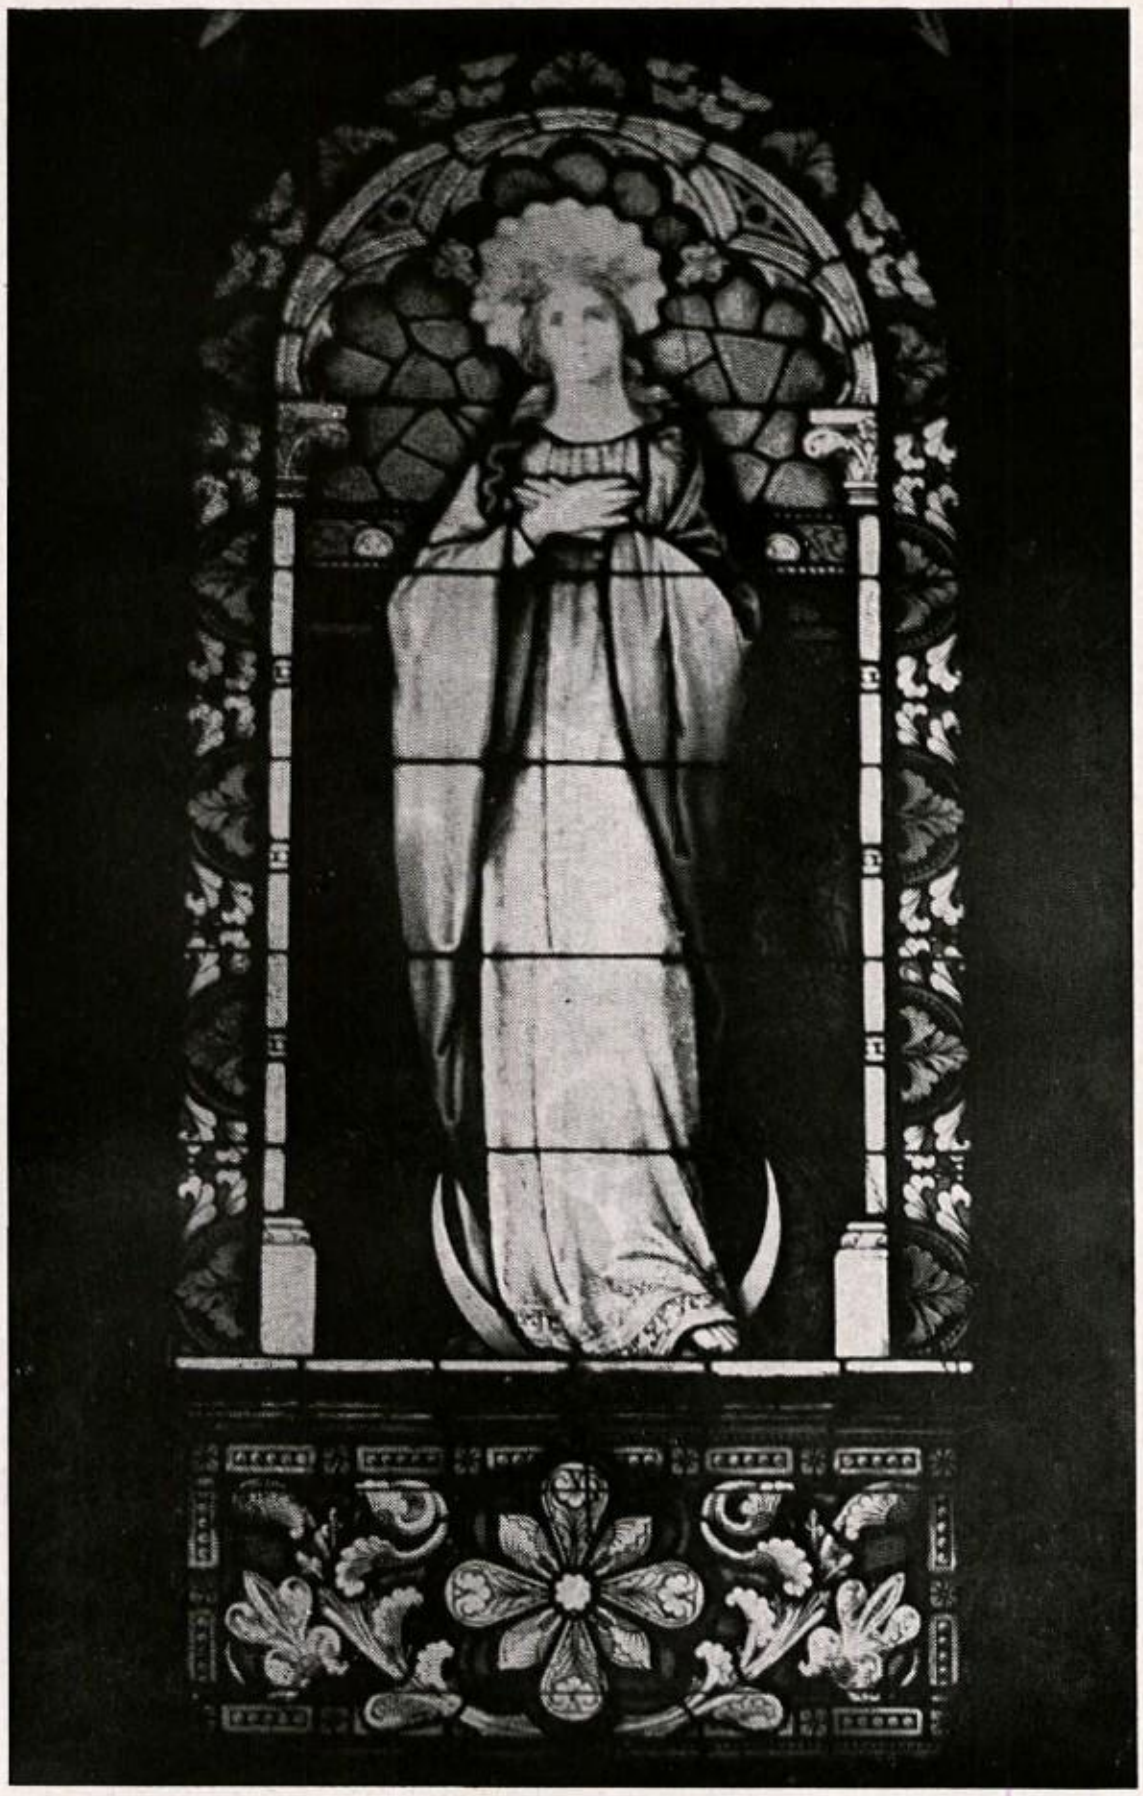
NOTRE DAME HIGH SCHOOL

Quincy, Illinois

Dedication . . .

To Our Lady, the patroness of Notre Dame, we, the Class of '48, humbly dedicate this second volume of En Dee Cue. Under her watchful guidance and loving care we have happily run the course of our high school days at Notre Dame, in preparation for a full life of Christian, Catholic living.

May we ever remain under her protective mantle as we go forth to put into practice the lessons of physical strength and moral courage, of virtue, of goodness, and of learning instilled during our four years at Notre Dame.



OUR LADY, PATRONESS OF NOTRE DAME

CONTENTS

Catholic Education is a Preparation for a Full Christian Life

In these times of great tension, in a world struggling between selfish material profit, and stifled spiritual ideals, there is need for Christian living. Our Catholic education at Notre Dame has been a preparation for this type of life at home, in business, and in every phase of society.

En Dee Cue, Volume II, is the story of a year at Notre Dame. In word and picture it portrays the work and play, the scholarship and comradeship of students at Notre Dame. It is life in a Catholic high school where His Sacramental Presence in our Chapel radiates throughout the school, where a crucifix hangs from the wall of every classroom and laboratory, where students are constantly reminded of an eternal destiny beyond.

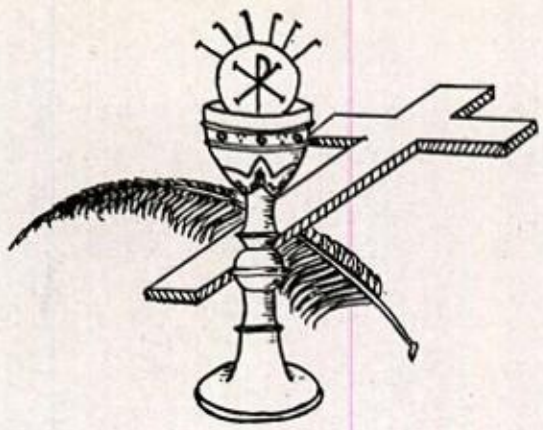
Junior Class



After getting settled in their first year as upperclassmen, the Juniors set out eagerly to give their very best to Notre Dame.

A large number of Juniors was in the band, ensemble, orchestra, schola and glee club. The class of '49 was well represented on the staffs of the Broadcaster and En Dee Cue. The Dramatic Arts Club also felt its influence, and several of its members were active in the C.I.S.L. contests and in radio broadcast work.

The Juniors provided a large share of Raider team members in football, basketball and baseball, and promised to furnish the mainstay of the team in '49, filling the places of the graduating Seniors.

In the Homecoming Parade Junior Homeroom 201 won second place in the Float Contest. Junior candidates for Homecoming Queen were, Jean Koch, Room 200; Rosene Sibbing, Room 201; Emily Goodpaster, Room 203.

Two offices of the Student Council fell to members of the Junior class, Vice-President, Jack Dierkes, and Treasurer, Donald Rees. Homeroom representatives were: Rosemary Burgess, Dick Hoebing, Patrick Kipping, Alan Lubbe, Eileen Petry, John Stark, and Tim Thompson.

An important problem confronting the class was the selection of a class ring. This was done by a vote of the entire class on Friday, Feb. 13.

With its sponsoring of the Junior-Senior Breakfast in May the class brought its eventful first year as upperclassmen to a close.

It was ably guided by faculty advisors: Sister M. Theonilla, Room 203; Sister M. Marietta, Room 201; Mr. McGuine (1st semester), Room 200; and Sister M. Ralph (2nd semester), Room 200.

Sophomore Class

No longer inexperienced, but seasoned Sophomores, the class of '50 returned to the halls of Notre Dame to take its part in the school's activities.

Not to be outdone by dignified upperclassmen, the Sophomores were determined to be represented in every school activity. Their ranks contained some of the most active members of the band. The Schola Cantorum also claimed many of them as members, while the activities of the Dramatic Arts Club enticed others. Among the latter were Mary Ann Averbeck and Ralph Thieman, who were contestants in the C.I.S.L. contests. Broadcaster reporting was the activity of still others.

Quite a number of boys took an active part in the reserve football and basketball schedule, proving they were just biding their time to become active Raider squad members in their junior and senior years.

Add to these the varied activities of Mission Day and individual class clubs, and the result is a Sophomore class prepared to take its place among upper classmen in the following year.

Student Council representatives for the year were: Betty Talken, Ruth Ridder, Marjorie Musholt and Joan Duker.

Faculty advisors who guided the Sophomore sections during the year were: Sister M. Clarona, Room 306; Sister M. Arsenia, Room 109; and Sister M. Helene, Room 110.

"Ready to lead in everything" was the determination of the class of '51 when it entered its new game of school life at Notre Dame. You couldn't have missed it, if you had so desired, for it had more members than any other class in school, boasting of four homeroom sections.

Since it was its first year, the members endeavored to prepare for leadership as upper classmen by organizing their own homeroom clubs to study parliamentary law.

In every school drive, especially that of the Broadcaster subscription

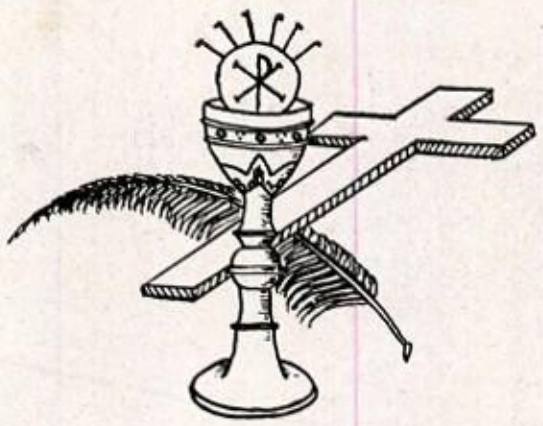
ACTIVITIES

A daily noon day visit to his Friend is a "must" on many a Notre Dame student's schedule

The Seniors offer tribute of love to Mary, their Queen, in the Living Rosary.

Retreat



The retreats, conducted by Rev. Francis Corrigan and Rev. John Morris, stressed the idea of personal happiness in our lives. There can be no happiness in our life if it is not lived in conformity with God's will for us. The purpose of the retreat was to help each student find his way to God, to happiness.

The daily question box period used by both Father Morris and Father Corrigan proved popular. Many questions which arise during teen-age were asked through the medium of the question box and satisfactorily answered.

Among the practices stressed was devotion to His Presence, the life giving source of all Christian, Catholic living, by daily attendance at Holy Mass, and frequent reception of the sacraments.

Thus, and only thus, will graces necessary to live a full Catholic life be granted.

Rev. Francis Corrigan Imparts the Eucharistic Blessing to Retreatants.

THE NOTRE DAME BAND

Perhaps the best known organization on the campus is the sixty-five piece band directed by Mr. Carl Landrum. The band proved to be under an able leader when it received a 1 rating in the district contest held in Quincy and a 2 rating in the state contest held in Canton in the spring of '47.

The band has made many public appearances this year, playing for three Te Deum lectures, for all basketball games, football games, the Community Chest parade, the Mendon Adams County Fair, the Labor Day parade, a 4H Achievement Day at Virginia, Ill., the McCooey Homecoming game at Hannibal, and the Western State Teacher's College game in Macomb. The annual formal concert was given on April 20 in the Quincy High School Auditorium. The band also sponsors an annual formal dance which was held in April this year.

Selected groups from the band attended special band clinics held at the University of Illinois, Western State Teacher's College in Macomb, MacMurry College in Jacksonville, and one at Illinois Music Educators' Clinic in Peoria.

The Dad's Club of Notre Dame plays a big part in aiding the band by buying instruments and uniforms, and so contributes toward making the band the successful organization it is.

The Notre Dame String Ensemble, the only organization of its kind in Quincy, was established some fifty years ago. It has always been the endeavor of the Ensemble to maintain the high standards set by its predecessors, and to carry out loyally the traditions of the past. To cultivate a love and appreciation for good music, to give pupils opportunities for group work, and to stimulate interest in the stringed instruments are among its objectives. Besides furnishing the music for the various organizations and activities of the school, it presents annually a concert during National Music Week.

NOTRE DAME STRING SEXTET

The Notre Dame String Sextet has become quite popular among social and civic activities in Quincy. It furnishes the music for the monthly Te Deum Meet, for the annual banquets of the Catholic Daughters of America, Western Catholic Union, and for the various social affairs of the school. All players are members of the Notre Dame String Ensemble and are quite advanced in the study of their instruments.

SCHOLA CANTORUM

The former Notre Dame Glee Club was re-organized in 1932 as the Notre Dame Schola. Its membership of forty girls is selected from the students, with induction of new members early in September. The schola is active in many of the religious, social, and dramatic affairs of Notre Dame. Appearances were conjointly made with Quincy High school for Christmas carolling and an Inter-racial Day. The Living Rosary and National Music week were other interesting occasions.

Dramatic Arts

The Dramatic Arts Club, functioning under the direction of Sister Mary Roberta, had ninety-six members. The club was organized in 1946 and is open to all students of Notre Dame, however, the Freshmen must serve a year's apprenticeship before being initiated. The purpose of the club is not only to give members an opportunity to develop their dramatic talent, but also to promote both knowledge of the theatre as a cultural institution, and an appreciation of good drama and great acting.

In November, 1947, the Dramatic Arts Club staged a variety show under the title of "Spice o'Life." About sixty players kept the audience entertained all evening with song, dance, and comedy skits. The club also sponsored the spring play "Button Button," by Maurice Clark which was staged on May 6.

The combined Radio and Speech Club was under the direction of Mr. Julian Scherer. The Radio Club arranged, wrote, casted, acted, and directed its Thursday programs at 4:15 p.m. over WTAD.

The Speech Club carried on a number of debates with other schools. The team members were James Clarkson, Bill Dieker, Betty Ebbert, and Katherine Doyle, all of whom did commendable work.

At Christmas the club sponsored a drive to obtain used toys for underprivileged children. To arouse interest and cooperation of the students in this drive the club staged a series of skits for the entire student body. The gifts were distributed on Christmas Eve by members of the club. This club has two sections, the Junior group and Senior group, which meet separately four times a week.

Homecoming

The first annual Notre Dame Homecoming, dedicated to the class of 1941, our first coed graduating class, was held November 8 and 9. It was a gala affair from the queen's election campaign to the Alumni formal.

The election of a queen was a hard fought battle between Emily Goodpaster, Norma Hoffman, Jean Koch, Rosene Sibbing, and Joan Spettnagel, in which Norma Hoffman, Senior Homeroom 103, finally won. The announcement of Norma's winning, broadcast on the Notre Dame radio show, November 6, was followed by a party at Miss Hoffman's home, for the other candidates, their campaign affiliates, and the homecoming committee.

On Saturday evening, November 7, one of Quincy's most colorful parades marched majestically through downtown Quincy to the Notre Dame athletic field where an immense bonfire was lighted by Mayor George Meyer, Jr. Some seventeen floats, two fire engines, and hundreds of students participated in the parade, which was viewed by thousands of Quincyians. For the outstanding float, a Hillbilly Scene, Senior Homeroom 102, was presented a pennant donated by the Alumni.

Sunday morning the Homecoming Mass was celebrated in St. Boniface Church. It was followed by breakfast in the cafeteria. At this affair the football squad was introduced to the Alumni by Assistant Coach James McGuine.

That afternoon one of Notre Dame's greatest football teams took the field against a highly favored Spalding eleven, and very soundly trounced them to a 13-0 defeat. It was the greatest upset ever dealt by a Raider team.

That night at nine o'clock, the Alumni sponsored a formal dance at which Don Timmerwilke, president of the class of 1941, crowned "Norm," Queen of the Homecoming.

This brought down the curtain on Notre Dame's first homecoming. It was a tremendous success for the class of "48," and all hope the classes that follow will continue to make the Homecoming at Notre Dame an affair which will make us proud and happy to come back.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Notre Dame Student Council began its 1947-1948 term in September. The main activity sponsored by the Council in the first semester was the bus trips to out-of-town football and basketball games. A Christmas formal was given, December 26, in the Knights of Columbus Hall. The Student Council also assisted the Ushers' Club in buying its sweaters.

The Council held a joint meeting with Quincy High Student Council and discussed many problems between the two schools. The Council attended the State Convention of Student Councils in Peoria, April 23 and 24, and campaigned for Rich Nieman for first vice-president of the Illinois Association of Student Councils.

Dads' Club

Ever since the reorganization of the P.T.A. in 1940, when Notre Dame became a co-educational high school, the Dad's Club has played an important role in the boys' athletic program. It has been through its untiring effort to raise necessary funds for expensive equipment that the Raiders have been able to compete creditably on the football field, the basketball court, and baseball diamond, with any other school in this locality.

FOOTBALL SEASON—1947

1947 saw the Raiders of Notre Dame come through with one of the best gridiron seasons in the seven years of their existence, closing the season with a record of four wins, three ties, and two defeats, and climaxing it with the spectacular upset of the undefeated and favored Spalding team of Peoria.

Notre Dame also welcomed Mr. James McGuine as assistant to Mr. Peter V. Affre, who has coached the Raiders successfully for the past eight years.

In the first game the team fought to a nothing to nothing tie with Macomb High. Our next tussle was with Roosevelt Military Academy of Aledo. The score of that game was Roosevelt 0, Notre Dame 45.

Against Normandy High, Notre Dame suffered its first loss. The team had trouble holding on to the ball. Scoring was done by Kenny Brink on a long run, and by a blocked kick caught and carried over by John Stark. Score—Normandy 32, Notre Dame 12.

Notre Dame's next game was with our cross-town rival, Quincy High. Although the final score was 0 to 0, N.D. out-did them in total yardage and first downs. This game was highlighted by the brilliant Raider defense. This is the first time Notre Dame ever held Quincy High scoreless.

In our second home-game Notre Dame was pitted against St. Teresa's High of Decatur. The spectacular pass catching of Greg Holthaus deserves honorable mention. Score—St. Teresa 0, Notre Dame 27.

The following Sunday, against St. Ambrose of Davenport, the Raiders suffered their second and last defeat. The Raiders didn't get started until the third quarter, and then it was too late. Score—St. Ambrose 25, Notre Dame 19.

October 24, the team traveled to Rushville for its last game on the road. In this game we were up against an unbeaten, untied team and were playing them on a muddy field. The game ended in a 7 to 7 tie, and the ball on Rushville's goal line.

Our next game was with Cathedral of Springfield. It was played in a pouring rain before a very small crowd of loyal students. Score—Cathedral 0, Notre Dame 31.

Our last scheduled game, and our first homecoming game, found us on the field against another unbeaten team, Spalding of Peoria. This was the last game of the season. The Raiders played inspired football and when the final gun blew on a 13-0 victory for the Raiders, the fans went wild while they pinched themselves to see if it were really true. This was the first time Notre Dame had beaten Spalding.

Our Cheerleaders

Rita McCaughey
Marilyn Middendorf
Donald Boeker
Bernetta Finigan
Rosemary Burgess

The early weeks of the school year were quite strenuous times for our cheer leaders. Every evening after class hours found them working in the garden under Mr. Scherer's supervision, doing everything from flips to knee-bending in an effort to put on gracefulness and put off pounds.

The group performed at all football games at home, and at most out-of-town games. The basketball season, however, brought the most strenuous work for these faithful boosters, when every home game featured them raising a storm of cheers for the Raiders.

The Quincy High game in the regional tournament, and the selection of new faces to fill those vacated by graduation, was the end of the year's activities.
